

LONG STORY SHORT:

Hello! I'm Noy, a graphic designer and UX-UI designer with a practical degree in media design. Loves designing brands, creating interfaces, videos, animations, and producing music.

I see myself as a very creative person. I'm always ready to get more skills. I'm a team person! I love getting different points of view and also getting new connections.

I'm looking for a full time and long term job, my next home.
